

FAIRFAX COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT

ACTIVITY REPORT

MARCH 12, 2010

ACTIVITIES REPORTED THROUGH MARCH 10, 2010

PUBLIC INFORMATION OFFICE -- 703-246-2253

There are three sections in this report: Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTS; Section II: PROPERTY CRIMES; and, Section III: ANIMAL RELATED INCIDENTS. Sections are appropriately identified. Within the sections, incidents are organized by station, then by type of offense. They are listed alphabetically by street address.

Addresses shown indicate blocks and not specific locations. Thus an entry showing Chain Bridge Road 4100 would mean the 4100 block of Chain Bridge Road, not the address 4100 Chain Bridge Road.

An asterisk (*) before an item indicates that a news release was distributed on that offense.

Section I: MAJOR INCIDENTSSULLY DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 1)

BANK ROBBERY: * Police are investigating a third bank robbery believed to have been committed by the same suspect in less than two weeks. The latest robbery occurred on Tuesday, March 9 shortly after 5 p.m. A woman entered the BB&T Bank, at 5105 Westfields Boulevard in Centreville. She approached a teller and passed her a note, which implied that she had a weapon and demanded money. The bank employee complied, handed over an undisclosed amount of cash and the suspect left the scene. She was last seen jogging toward Sequoia Farms Drive. There were no injuries.

Police believe that the woman may have committed similar robberies on February 26 and March 2, 2010.

The suspect was described as black, with very dark skin, around 5 feet 4 inches tall and heavyset. She may have weighed between 160 and 170 pounds. She wore black shirt and pants, a black and white scarf around her head and large sunglasses.

FATAL CRASH: * Police are investigating a single-vehicle crash that killed a 47-year-old man. Around 10:40 p.m. on Thursday, March 4, Umar Adam was operating a 2008 Honda Civic southbound on South Kings Highway. Near the intersection with Southgate Drive he veered off the road to the right and struck a brick wall. Adam, of 2651 Arlington Drive # 103 in Alexandria, was transported to the hospital and succumbed to his injuries a short time later.

Speed and alcohol do not appear to be factors in the crash. There were no signs of braking prior to the impact. The medical examiner will determine the cause of death.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

ROBBERY: A 59-year-old man was robbed on Friday evening. The man was sitting at a table inside the Krispy Kreme store, located at 6332 Richmond Highway, around 11 p.m. on March 5. Four males approached him from behind. One suspect pushed him and another suspect grabbed the victim's cell phone from his hands. All the suspects fled the store on foot. The victim did not require medical attention. The suspects were all described as black, in their 20s. Three suspects were about 5 feet 7 inches tall and the fourth was about 5 feet 10 inches tall.

BANK ROBBERY: * Police are investigating a bank robbery that occurred on Tuesday, March 9 shortly after 11:30 a.m. A man entered the TD Bank, located at 6615 Richmond Highway, and approached a 22-year-old woman behind the counter. He implied he had a weapon and demanded money. The victim complied and the suspect exited with an undisclosed amount of cash. The victim did not require medical attention.

The suspect was described as black, in his 30s to 40s; about 5 feet 6 inches tall with a medium build. He was wearing a yellow construction hat, a dark sweat shirt, and blue jeans.

TRESPASSING, ARREST: A 50-year-old man was arrested for trespassing on private property Tuesday, March 9 around 10:57 p.m. Officers on routine patrol located three men to the rear of the shopping center, located in the 2200 block of Farrington Avenue. No trespassing signs are posted on the property. All three fled when they saw the officers. Julian Mata, of 5873 Monticello Drive #120 in Alexandria, was charged with trespassing after a short foot pursuit.

ASSAULT ON POLICE OFFICER, ARREST: Police were called to the Sheraton Hotel, located on 8661 Leesburg Pike, on March 7 at 2:15 a.m. for a trespassing call. Police located 26-year-old Caitlin Jones, of no fixed address, who was uncooperative and resisted arrest. Jones was charged with assault on a police officer, trespassing, providing false identification and indecent exposure.

MASON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 4)

SEX OFFENSE, ARREST: Police responded to the Marshalls department store, located at 6200 Little River Turnpike, on March 6 at 3:30 p.m. for a sex offense in progress. Police located 39-year-old Edwin Rivera, of no fixed address, and charged him with obscene sexual display.

FATAL HIT AND RUN CRASH: * A pedestrian was struck while attempting to cross Arlington Boulevard between Patrick Henry Drive and East Manchester Street at around 6:10 a.m. Saturday, March 6. The pedestrian is a man in his late 20s or early 30s and police believe he had been in the crosswalk when he was struck. He was transported to Inova Fairfax Hospital where he is in life-threatening condition.

Police continue to look for the striking vehicle, which was traveling in the eastbound lanes and did not stop at the scene. The vehicle most likely has front end damage and, possibly, broken headlights, windshield and drivers side mirror.

Crash Reconstruction Unit detectives are continuing to investigate the incident.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF VEHICLE, ARREST: Police were called to the 5700 block of Seminary Road for an unauthorized use case at 8:15 p.m. on Saturday, March 6. An investigation determined the owner of a 1993 Nissan Altima left an acquaintance in his car and went inside a convenience store. While inside, the acquaintance stole the car. Warrants were obtained and on Monday, March 8, Shadi Suleiman Jabarin, 22, of 3538 Lee Court in Alexandria, was charged with unauthorized use of a vehicle.

RESTON DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 5)

FATAL CRASH: * A passenger in a Toyota minivan died Sunday, March 7, and the driver is in life-threatening condition, after a crash that occurred around 4:25 a.m. Two men were traveling westbound on Walker Road, near Akhtamar Drive, when the driver apparently ran off the road to the right, overcorrected, drove off the road to the left and struck a tree. Police identified the deceased as Shaun Farokhzad, 19, of 9817 Mill Run Drive in Great Falls. The driver, 18, is a Great Falls-area resident. He remains in life-threatening condition.

The wreck was found by a passerby. Crash Reconstruction Detectives are still investigating the scene and preliminarily believe that speed may have been a factor in the crash.

SPEED TO ELUDE, POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA, ARREST: A patrol officer attempted to stop the driver of a 2005 Volkswagen GTI for traffic charges on Sunday, March 7 at 11:34 p.m. The driver fled and a short pursuit ensued. The suspect crashed into a fire hydrant at North Shore Drive and Wiehle Avenue. Meghan Taylor Look, 18, of 12013 Insha Court in Reston, was charged with felony speed to elude and possession of marijuana.

FRANCONIA DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 6)

SPEED TO ELUDE, DWI, ARREST: Two men were arrested after a short pursuit on Saturday, March 6. Around 1:48 a.m. an officer attempted to stop the driver of a 2007 Nissan Sentra on Little River Turnpike near Markham Street for a traffic infraction. The driver did not comply and a short pursuit ensued. The suspect entered I-495 north and encountered another vehicle, a 1998 Nissan Quest near the Route 50 exit. The driver of the Quest nearly stopped in the travel lane on I-495 and the suspect vehicle crashed into him. The drivers of both vehicles were reportedly intoxicated and both were arrested. The driver of the Sentra, Yoonhwan Jung, 50, of 3104 Starner Court in Kensington, Maryland, was charged with driving while intoxicated, refusal and felony speed to elude. The driver of the Quest, Juan Carlos Arauco Villarroel, 40, of 5536 Crossrail Court in Burke, was transported to the hospital and admitted with minor injuries. A warrant for driving while intoxicated-second offense within 10 years, was issued and served at the hospital.

BANK ROBBERY: *Police are investigating a bank robbery that occurred on Saturday, March 6 around 11:20 a.m. A man entered the Cardinal Bank, at 10695 Braddock Road, near the intersection of Route 123, brandished a weapon and demanded money. The bank employee complied and the suspect fled. He was last seen running across the parking lot toward businesses in University Mall. There were no injuries.

The suspect was described as black, around 5 feet 10 inches tall and thin. He may have weighed between 150 and 160 pounds. He wore a black backpack, dark sunglasses, a mask, a brown hooded sweatshirt and jeans.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

FRAUD, ARREST: *A 57-year-old Springfield-area man was charged with welfare fraud. On Tuesday, March 9, Luis Bascope, of 6315 Zekan Lane, turned himself into detectives and was arrested for allegedly defrauding the county Department of Family Services of over $23,000. Bascope was allegedly receiving financial assistance for child care from January of 2002 to December of 2007, for which he did not qualify. Bascope is an employee of the Fairfax County Public Schools.

ROBBERY: A 41-year-old man was robbed while waiting at a bus stop around 8:40 p.m. on Tuesday, March 9. The man was standing alone on Pohick Road near Larne Lane. A man and woman approached him. The man assaulted the victim, knocking him to the ground. The male suspect reportedly displayed a knife and took the victim's jacket and wallet. Both suspects fled on foot. The victim walked back to his residence and called police. He did not require medical attention.

WEST SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 7)

UPDATE – ADDITIONAL CHARGES PLACED: *A 59-year-old West Springfield area man was charged with four counts of possession of child pornography. On Monday, March 1, Charles Duwain Dillon, of 6940 Spelman Drive, turned himself into police headquarters and was arrested for allegedly possessing child pornography. The evidence surfaced during the investigation initiated in 2009.

Previous Release: Sex Offender Fails to Register

West Springfield Police District – A 58-year-old piano teacher was arrested for allegedly failing to adequately update his information on Virginia's Sex Offender Registry. Around 10 a.m., on Tuesday, October 6, 2009, Charles Duwain Dillon, of 6940 Spelman Drive, was taken to the Fairfax County Adult Detention Center and charged with violating Virginia Code 18.2-472.1.

Dillon allegedly set up a web site entitled "Piano Dreams Studio" advertising piano lessons for ages 4 and up, and failed to register it. Virginia law requires a registered sex offender to notify authorities within 30 minutes of any change to their internet communication used by the offender.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS/8477, e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES/274637 or call Fairfax County Police at 703-691-2131.

CARJACKING, ARREST: * Police charged a 27-year-old man with carjacking after they were able to track him down following an extensive neighborhood search in the Manchester Lakes area of Fairfax County early Saturday morning. Cornelius Henderson, 6118 Bristol Way, Alexandria was arrested at his home around 6:30 a.m. Saturday, March 6. He is accused of commandeering and stealing a taxi around 1:30 a.m. while on his way home from a Centreville area bar.

The suspect reportedly hailed a cab and asked the driver to take him to Springfield. While en route, Henderson allegedly began to assault the cab driver as he drove along Fairfax County Parkway near Rolling Road. Several witnesses contacted police and reported seeing a taxi driving in a reckless manner in the area. The 44-year-old taxi driver was forced to drive off the road and ended up in the grassy median. The suspect then pushed the victim out of the cab, jumped into the driver's seat and drove away. There were no serious injuries reported.

Through a variety of investigative techniques, including use of a tracking K-9, police located the suspect, and the taxi, in the Bristol Way and Old Brentford Road area several hours later, around three miles from where the taxi was stolen. Detectives are continuing to investigate the incident.

FAIR OAKS DISTRICT STATION (DISTRICT 8)

PRESCRIPTION FRAUD, ARREST: Police were called to the Costco pharmacy at 4725 West Ox Road on Friday, March 5, for prescription fraud. Around 8 p.m. a man reportedly attempted to fill a fraudulent prescription for Oxycodone. Officers learned he previously filled two other prescriptions for the same narcotic on January 29 and February 26. Andrew Kiser, 33, of 9806 Bragg Lane in Manassas, was charged with three counts of prescription fraud.

DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY, VEHICLE TAMPERING, LARCENY: A large number of vehicles in the Middleton Farm neighborhood were damaged when windows were smashed out. Several of those vehicles had items stolen from inside. Police located some juveniles outside in the neighborhood and determined they were involved. Petitions will be sought once the investigation is complete.
